

12/13/29

Dear Marjorie:

This is an awful day for me to write in your book, isn't it? Friday the 13th! Well hope it doesn't mean any bad luck for either of us. I wish you health, wealth, and happiness. And don't forget, in the years that are to come, our school days together. Especially at dear old "Short." Forget - me - not.

Ruth Houlette