

Fred Reynolds Dies In Hospital At Carlinville

Fred Reynolds, 72, died at 6:30 a. m. Friday at Carlinville Area hospital. He had been ill of pneumonia. His home was on a farm west of Carlinville, and recently a half-brother, James, had been making his home with him.

He was born July 4, 1884, near Carrollton, a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Eli Reynolds.

Surviving are his step-mother, Mrs. Ida Reynolds, who is in a nursing home in Carlinville; and three half-brothers, James of Carlinville; Frank of Carrollton; and Howard of St. Louis.

Funeral services were conducted by the Rev. Glenn Manis at the Simpson Funeral Home Sunday afternoon. Mrs. Harry Carter and Mrs. William Bridgewater sang, accompanied by Mrs. Richard Giller.

Interment was in Carrollton cemetery. The pallbearers were George Clark and Louis Langer of Eldred; Dr. F. O. Whiteman and William Stine of Carrollton and Earl Rand and A. Wheeler of Carlinville.

Harry D. Hoots Dies At Home Near Eldred

Harry D. Hoots, 71, died in his sleep about 1:30 a. m. Saturday, October 11, at his home south of Eldred. Although it was known that he had a heart ailment and in recent weeks he had been less active in his farming operations, his death was unexpected.

He was born March 25, 1887, on the farm where his death occurred. His parents were the late Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Hoots. He was a World War I veteran, a member of the Eldred American Legion Post, and of the Baptist church.

Surviving are his wife, the former Mildred Green to whom he was married in 1923, a daughter, Mrs. Darrell Carter of Monterey, Mexico, one granddaughter, Susanne Carter, and a brother, Frank Hoots, of Eldred.

Funeral Services were conducted by the Rev. John T. Finnan at the Simpson Funeral Home Monday afternoon. Mrs. William Bridgewater Jr. was soloist during the service, with Miss Nita Ford as accompanist.

Interment was in Carrollton cemetery. The pallbearers were Herbert Geisler, Clarence Ligon, Kenneth Brannan, Luther Smith Otis Whitaker and Harry Borman.

Mrs. E. Maberry Dies After Few Weeks Illness

Mrs. Ella Jane Maberry, 65, wife of Vernon Maberry, died at 8:45 a.m. Monday at Boyd Memorial hospital. She had reentered the hospital Sunday, where she had been a patient some time before, following surgery.

She was born at Kane, Feb. 26, 1893, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cal Carter. Her marriage to Mr. Maberry took place May 25, 1914.

Surviving besides her husband, are a daughter, Mrs. Majorie Sawyer and son Thomas, a grandson, Terry Sawyer, her mother, Mrs. Henrietta Williams, a sister, Mrs. Leland Chinowth, and three brothers, John, Harry and Howard Carter, all of Carrollton. A son, William, died in July of 1940.

Funeral services were conducted by the Rev. Robert Pitsch Wednesday afternoon at the Simpson Funeral Home. Interment was in Carrollton cemetery.

The pallbearers were John Carter, Jr., Neal Carter, Paul Carter, Robert Chinowth, James Carter and Ronald Carter.

Mrs. Effie Ladd Dies Following Long Illness

Mrs. Effie May Ladd, 80, died at 2:00 p.m. Sunday, October 12, in Duncan Nursing Home, Jacksonville, where she had been a patient for a few months.

She was born April 21, 1878 in Calhoun County, a daughter of Isaiah and Anna Fanning. For about 60 years she had been a resident of Carrollton.

Surviving are a daughter, Mrs. Mary Borlin, Carrollton; three sons, Earl, Pacific, Mo.; Edward of San Bernadino, Calif.; and David, stationed at an air force base near Belton, Mo.; and two sisters, Mrs. Charles Sackett of White Hall and Mrs. Roy Gates of Granite City.

Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon at the Simpson Funeral Home, the Rev. William J. Boston of Jacksonville, officiating.

Interment was in Carrollton cemetery. Pallbearers were W. L. Carpunky, Harry Gillingham, Robert Blackstone, Melvin Mattis, Arch Willenburg and Ralph Shafer.

Mrs. Etta Ruyle Ill For Many Months, Dies

Mrs. Etta Foiles Ruyle, 79, wife of Arthur A. Ruyle, died at 10:30 a. m. Friday, October 3, in Montreat Nursing Home, Hardin, where she had been a patient since the middle of August. She had previously been hospitalized after suffering a stroke and also following a hip fracture.

She was born in Calhoun county June 20, 1879, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Foiles. She and her husband came to Carrollton to make their home in 1923.

Besides her husband she is survived by a son, Orland, of Skokie, a daughter, Mrs. Ralph Kibbons of Peoria, three grandsons, and a sister, Miss Anna Foiles, who is a patient in Montreat Nursing Home.

Funeral services were held at 3:30 p. m. Sunday at the Methodist church, the Rev. Robert Pitsch officiating.

Interment was in Carrollton cemetery. Pallbearers were her nephews, Kenneth Foiles, Cecil Foiles, Howard Foiles and Donald Foiles, and her great nephews, Arthur and Russell Foiles.

Funeral arrangements were by the Simpson Funeral Home.

Funeral Services Held Monday For Mrs. Kate Bushnell

Mrs. Sarah C. "Kate" Bushnell, 84, widow of Walter Bushnell, died at 2:30 a.m. Saturday at Boyd Memorial hospital, where she had been a patient three weeks.

She was the former Sarah Tuey, daughter of the late William and Mattie Tuey, and was born in August of 1873. She was married to Mr. Bushnell May 18, 1897, and his death occurred Sept. 3, 1951.

Surviving are two sons, Lee and Clyde of Eldred and three daughters, Mrs. Lela Giberson, and Mrs. Opal Davidson, Eldred, and Mrs. Georgie Tohde of Blainstown, Ia.

Funeral services were conducted Monday afternoon by the Rev. John Finnan at Eldred Baptist church and interment was in Eldred cemetery.

Arrangements were by the Simpson Funeral Home.